12. Re-entry Action Plan (REAP)

Guide for Writing your REAP

You may download this annotated REAP form for help on how to fill out the REAP form.

You will notice that many sections in the REAP form have a word count e.g., 0/200. This means you can only input 200 words maximum into that box. The

"0" will increase into the total word count as soon as you start inputting text.

What is REAP?

The Re-entry Action Plan (REAP) is a formal document that represents a scholar's commitment to honor the conditions of the Australia Awards Scholarships (see Scholarship Handbook section 4.2). It is a mechanism that allows scholars to apply what they have learned in Australia to contribute to Philippine development through a meaningful project in an organisation or community.

A. Relevance of the REAP Project

The REAP should clearly and succinctly explain how the delivery of its proposed output or outputs will improve the services or performance of the Host Organisation and ultimately contribute to the achievement of the goals set in the Philippine Government's Ambisyon Natin 2040, and the goals of the Australian Government in the Philippines.

Fill out the following sections after reading these required documents.

REAP TITLE

- What is the title of your REAP Project? For example: “An innovative valuation method for computing real estate taxes.”

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

- What problem or opportunity in the Host Organisation is your REAP hoping to address?
- Cite specific examples, cases and/or reports to support your belief that this problem or opportunity really exists, is critical but
- You should articulate how this problem or opportunity is anchored on the situation of the Host Organisation.

The REAP targeting the problem or opportunity of the Host Organisation is aligned to the goals set in the Philippine Government's 2040, and the goals of the Australian Government in the Philippines.

OBJECTIVE

- Objective must be SMART - Specific, measurable, attainable, result-oriented and time-bound.
Kindly indicate a single objective only, i.e. “To reduce the transaction time for obtaining a Business Permit in Pasig City from :

- DO NOT indicate a compound objective, i.e. “To reduce the transaction time for obtaining a Business Permit in Municipality A working days and increase the number of applicants from 200 to 500 per day.”
- How will your REAP Output benefit your Direct Beneficiaries? Sample: “ The valuation method and manual for computing real estate tax assessments will produce will help increase the assessment completion rate of the 25 real estate tax assessors of the Municipality of ABC assessments per month.”

REAP Title *

Enhancing Terms of reference (TOR) Preparation and Project Delivery Frameworks in the Department of Transportation

The title should give the reader a good idea of the nature of the REAP

Objective *

To develop and institutionalize updated policies and capacity-building programs that will strengthen the Department of Transportation's internal capability to prepare robust and comprehensive Terms of Reference (TOR) for consultants and contractors by 12 months after the completion of the Australian Awards scholarship program.

The objective must be SMART-Specific, measurable, attainable, result-oriented and with timeframe

Name of Host Organisation *

Department of Transportation, Philippines

What is the name of the organisation where your REAP Project will be implemented (your own organisation or another organisation)?0/50

Description of the Host Organisation and relation to REAP

My strong professional relationship with the Department of Transportation (DOTr) will significantly support the implementation of my REAP. As a key stakeholder and my host organization, DOTr provides both institutional backing and access to critical systems and personnel that are essential for the enhancement of service delivery, system development, policy evaluation, and formulation. Through this relationship, I am able to work closely with units directly involved in procurement and TOR (Terms of Reference) preparation, enabling me to pilot and integrate REAP outputs such as updated guidelines, standardized templates, and internal capacity-building workshops. This close coordination ensures that REAP activities are contextually relevant, aligned with DOTr's strategic goals, and immediately implementable, ultimately improving procurement timelines, contract implementation, and budget utilization efficiency.

How did you come to know about this organisation and why did you choose it to be your host? How can your relationship / connectedness with the Host Organisation help you in completely implementing your REAP?

Problem / Opportunity *

One of the recurring challenges within the Department of Transportation (DOTr) is the weak internal capacity for preparing comprehensive and procurement-ready Terms of Reference (TOR) for contractors and consultants engaged in infrastructure projects. This often results in the frequent request for technical assistance (TA) from other institutions such as Asian Development Bank (ADB), which in turn incurs significant costs to the government.

The lack of a standardized approach and clear institutional policy on TOR preparation leads to inconsistencies in quality, delays in procurement processes, and contract disputes due to vague or incomplete scopes of work. This inefficiency contributes to implementation delays and even project underperformance. In many cases, projects funded by Official Development Assistance (ODA) require loan extensions or additional technical support funding, primarily to support TOR development, bidding documents, and procurement packaging assistance.

What problem or opportunity in the Host Organisation is your REAP hoping to address? • Cite specific examples, cases and/or reports to support your belief that this problem or opportunity really exists, is critical but not urgent. • You should articulate how this problem or opportunity is anchored on the situation of the Host Organisation.

(200 words)

Direct Beneficiary *

The primary beneficiaries of this REAP are DOTr's planning, procurement, and project management divisions across all sectoral offices. Indirect beneficiaries include local contractors, consultants, and ultimately the commuting public who will benefit from timely and better-managed infrastructure projects. It is estimated that over 200 personnel department-wide will benefit from the improved policies and capacity-building programs.

Gender, Equality Disability, and Social Inclusion (GEDSI) ***

The REAP will integrate GEDSI principles by ensuring that the updated TOR manual and associated policies promote inclusive practices in project planning and implementation. Specific strategies include:

Inclusive Participation – Women, persons with disabilities (PWDs), and other marginalized staff within DOTr will be actively involved in consultations, drafting sessions, and capacity-building activities.

Accessible Training – All learning sessions will be designed to be inclusive and accessible (e.g., venues with PWD access, use of sign language interpreters if needed, gender-sensitive content).

Inclusive Language and Provisions in TORs – TOR templates and policies will include clauses encouraging contractors

My REAP, which focuses on enhancing Terms of Reference (TOR) preparation and project delivery frameworks within the Department of Transportation (DOTr), will contribute significantly to climate change adaptation, disaster risk reduction (DRR), and environmental protection by embedding sustainability principles into early project planning and procurement processes. Strengthened TORs will incorporate climate-resilient infrastructure standards, environmental safeguards, and DRR considerations as mandatory criteria, ensuring that all proposed projects align with national and global climate commitments, such as the Philippine Climate Change Act and the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction.

By improving the clarity, consistency, and quality of TORs, project implementers will be guided to consider the long-term environmental and climate impacts of transportation initiatives. This approach will prevent maladaptive

IMPACT AND SUSTAINABILITY OF THE ORGANISATIONAL OUTCOME OF THE REAP. The REAP should produce an output/s that Organisation improve their services or performance. These improvements are the outcome/s of your REAP. You should therefore clear strategies for the Host Organisation will sustain the gains of the REAP after its completion. (TIP: Based on our survey, the following effective implementation of REAP: the goals of the REAP should align with the goals of the Host Organisation and the Host Organisation the completion and full implementation of your REAP.)

Development impact and Sustainability *

My REAP directly supports the Department of Transportation's (DOTr) goal of delivering efficient, transparent, and responsive transport services by enhancing the quality of Terms of Reference (TOR) preparation and strengthening project delivery frameworks. By standardizing and streamlining TORs, the REAP will address recurring issues in procurement delays, misaligned project scopes, and underperformance—ultimately improving project implementation timelines, budget efficiency, and service outcomes.

How will your REAP contribute to the achievement of the goals of the Host Organisation? What is your strategy to ensure that the gains of the REAP will be institutionalised and sustained beyond the REAP completion?

Competencies *

Through the Master's in Construction Engineering Management / Project Management, I aim to improve key competencies in project scoping, procurement strategy, contract administration, risk assessment, and stakeholder management. These are critical skills necessary to design TORs that are comprehensive, implementable, and aligned with project objectives and regulatory frameworks. The academic exposure to global best practices and case studies will enable me to contextualize and localize these practices for DOTr's needs.

What competencies do you hope to improve or gain when you study in Australia? How will your proposed program of study help provide these competencies? You must clearly and succinctly articulate the importance of your proposed program of study to providing the competencies you need to implement your REAP

C. Sustainability of REAP Project

The REAP Project should produce an output or outputs that will help Host Organisations improve their services or performance. These improvements, however, should continue beyond the implementation of the REAP Project. The REAP should therefore clearly articulate how these improvements will be sustained after the completion of the REAP Project. Experience of past successful applicants highlight the importance getting the full support of Host Organisations to institutionalise the REAP Project outputs.

Priority Area *

Governance and Public Policy, including civil society and media

How does your proposed course and your REAP contribute to the identified priority area above?

My proposed Master's in Engineering Management will provide me with a strong foundation in leadership, systems optimization, risk management, and project governance—skills that are directly applicable to strengthening public sector processes and decision-making. This aligns with the priority area of Governance and Public Policy by addressing systemic inefficiencies in infrastructure planning and implementation, particularly within the Department of Transportation (DOTr).

Why did you choose your course and university? *

I chose to pursue a Master's in Engineering Management because it aligns seamlessly with my academic background in civil engineering and my professional experience in construction and project management. The course offers the perfect balance between technical depth and managerial expertise—equipping me with advanced competencies in strategic planning, systems thinking, risk assessment, and leadership, all of which are essential in my current role and future aspirations within the public infrastructure sector.

How will the proposed course contribute to the implementation of your REAP? *

The Master's in Engineering Management will directly enhance my ability to implement my REAP, which focuses on improving Terms of Reference (TOR) preparation and project delivery frameworks within the Department of Transportation (DOTr). The course will equip me with advanced knowledge in project governance, systems engineering, procurement strategy, and risk management—tools essential for diagnosing current inefficiencies and formulating effective, scalable solutions.

Describe your proposed program and cite subjects/academic activities that will help you implement your REAP.

How will the proposed course contribute to your career? *

The Master's in Engineering Management will significantly contribute to my career by enhancing both my technical leadership and policy implementation skills, enabling me to take on higher-level roles within the Department of Transportation (DOTr). With over 11 years of experience as a licensed civil engineer, this course will help me transition from purely technical functions to strategic management, allowing me to lead complex infrastructure programs, influence policy reform, and drive systemic improvements in project delivery and governance.

The information below is used to assist the AAAEP-P in monitoring, supporting, and improving services to all students. Disclosing this information will not affect your admission to the program. Your response will remain confidential.

Australia Awards Scholarships strongly encourages applications from people with disability who are otherwise eligible for a scholarship. Under the Disability Discrimination Act, Australian education institutions have to provide 'reasonable adjustments' to students with disability to assist access to study. To assess the likely support needs, appropriate assistance, and the capacity of relevant institutions to provide the assistance, awardees with a disability/special need must provide details of the disability and/or special need when they accept their offer. This information is bound by Australian privacy laws and will be disclosed only for the purpose of facilitating an accessible barrier-free learning environment.

Under Australian law, disability includes physical, intellectual, psychiatric, sensory, neurological, learning disabilities, physical disfigurement, and the presence in the body of disease-causing organisms
(http://www.hreoc.gov.au/disability_rights/dda_guide/who/who.html)

Modifications to physical or learning environments, including additional educational supports such as sign interpreters and captioning, may be available depending on the relevant Institution's capacity. Australia Awards will advise the Institution of any special requirements associated with an Awardee so that the Institution can pass these details to the Institution's Disability Liaison Officer prior to the Awardee arriving on-campus. Where an Institution is not able to provide the assistance requested, other Institutions may be recommended.

Authorisation

The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) and the Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research (ACIAR) of the Australia Government must comply with the Privacy Act 1988 in relation to the personal information you have provided in this form.

By submitting this form I authorise DFAT and ACIAR, or its appointed managing contractor, to access and/or obtain information, including copies of any of my relevant academic records/reports from the education institution(s) that I have attended for the following purposes:

- for use in the selection process for an Australia Award and John Allwright Fellowship - Philippines*
- to monitor my academic performance at my host institution while studying under an Australia Award and John Allwright Fellowship - Philippines*
- to brief relevant Australian officials, Ministers and members of Parliament.*

I consent for DFAT and ACIAR, or its appointed managing contractor, to share this application form and supporting documents with the government of my country of citizenship, if the government is involved in the Australia Awards scholarship selection process.

Should I receive an Australia Award or John Allwright Fellowship - Philippines, I consent:

- 1. to the Australian Government using and disclosing extracts of my application (relating to my academic background and achievements, leadership skills and my proposed study program in Australia) in promotional material in hardcopy and on the Internet. I note that promotional material may include, but is not limited to, media releases and information circulated to DFAT's offshore Posts and Australian education institutions, concerning the Australia Awards.*
- 2. to my personal information and that of my family members and dependants, including sensitive information as defined in the Privacy Act 1988, being collected, handled, used and disclosed by and exchanged between DFAT, other government agencies including Australian immigration authorities, Australian education institutions, partner organisations (including managing contractors and sub-contractors), medical insurers, medical practitioners, case managers, the home government (where* applicable) and other parties, in the circumstances outlined, and for the purposes indicated, in the Australia Awards Scholarships Policy Handbook as updated from time to time.

I authorise DFAT and ACIAR to disclose the personal information collected in this form to other Australian Government departments and Australian education institutions for the purpose of promoting and managing the Australia Awards.

Understanding

I understand and confirm that:

- I have read and complied with the Scholarships Policy Handbook and that the contents of my application are true and correct*
- DFAT and ACIAR has the right to vary or reverse any decision regarding a scholarship made on the basis of incorrect or incomplete information*
- Decisions of the selection panel are final and confidential and no correspondence about outcomes of the selection process will be entered into.*

Agreement

If successful in gaining an Australia Award or John Allwright Fellowship - Philippines, I agree that I will:

- undergo a police or character check before my Australia Award or John Allwright Fellowship - Philippines is confirmed*
- immediately provide DFAT and ACIAR with details of any incident that may reflect badly on the prestige of an Australia Award*
- act in a manner befitting a recipient of an Australia Award*
- use the funds for the purposes granted*

- acknowledge the assistance given by the Australian Government in any written reports, publications or publicity associated with the Award.

Declaration and acknowledgment

I declare, in submitting this application form, that the information contained in it and provided in connection with it is true and correct.

I acknowledge that giving false or misleading information is a serious offence under the Criminal Code Act 1995 of the Commonwealth of Australia.

By submitting this form electronically, physical signature is not necessary per Electronic Commerce Act (Republic Act No. 8792)
