Subject : AMENDMENT TO SECTION 8.2 OF THE DEPARTMENT
ORDER 2021-007, RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING SCHOLARSHIP AND TRAINING PROGRAMS IN THE DEPARTMENT

Date : 26 APR 2023

1.0 Purpose

As part of the streamlining of processes in the Department, Section 8.2¹ of the Department Order 2021-007² is hereby amended to reinstate/redefine the following guidelines for strict compliance of all officials and personnel:

8.2 SELECTION STAGE

A. INVITATION TO THE PROGRAM

8.2.1 Upon receipt of the invitation from the Development Partner, the PDC Secretariat shall evaluate each learning and development program to determine, among others, the following:

- a. Relevance of the program to the Department/Office's mandates
- b. Minimum eligibility requirements identified by the Development Partner for the applicants
- c. Checklist of documentary requirements for applicants
- d. Post-study outputs and deliverables (e.g., REAP) upon completion of the program, and
- e. Assignment of a resident mentor (if necessary)

8.2.2 The PDC Secretariat shall extend such invitations to the target beneficiaries or appropriate recipient offices and the potential eligible candidates for nomination therein as identified in the Learning and Development (L&D) Plan. Invitations may be extended to other offices, provided that preference shall be accorded to the identified target beneficiaries per the L&D Plan.

8.2.3 Applications to any foreign non-study program and study program, whether local or foreign, shall be submitted to the PDC Secretariat for initial evaluation and processing. Only those who have met the minimum eligibility requirements set by the agency concerned and the Development Partners shall be subject to the deliberation of the PDC.

8.2.4 To ensure that all nominations are given ample time for careful evaluation, all non-study and study program invitations, whether local or foreign, must be forwarded to the DOTr-Human Resource Development Division (DOTr-HRDD) at least two (2) weeks prior to the submission deadline.

B. MINIMUM ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

8.2.5 As a general rule, permanent government employees are eligible to apply to local and/or foreign non-study and study programs organized by the agency and/or sponsored by the Development Partners.

8.2.6 Non-career government personnel such as co-terminus, temporary, casual, and contractual personnel may be eligible to apply for local and foreign non-study programs, provided that the employee has rendered at least six (6) months of service within the agency concerned.

8.2.7 Any employee interested in applying to any available foreign non-study program and study program, whether local or foreign must not be currently suspended by an executory decision in an administrative case.

8.2.8 The applicant must meet the minimum eligibility requirements of the Development Partner relative to education, experience, age, language proficiency, and others in order to be considered for selection and nomination³.

8.2.9 An applicant may be nominated to another foreign non-study program and study program, whether local or foreign, if:

- a. The applicant has not received any study program, whether local or foreign, for the past two (2) years⁴
- b. The applicant has completed the Re-Entry Action Plan (REAP) without any pending or incomplete implementation
- c. The applicant has no pending or existing service obligation

8.2.11 The applicant must have obtained at least a Very Satisfactory (VS) performance rating or its equivalent for two (2) consecutive periods immediately preceding the nomination.

C. SUBMISSION OF MINIMUM DOCUMENTARY REQUIREMENTS

8.2.12 Aside from the documentary requirements identified by the Development Partner, applications from interested personnel shall only be considered for nomination upon the complete submission of the following:

- a. Accomplished Scholarship Nomination Form⁵
- b. Updated Personal Data Sheet and Work Experience Sheet⁶
- c. Updated Service Record (for applicants from attached agencies and sectoral offices)
- d. Individual Performance Commitment Review (IPCR) for the last two (2) rating periods
- e. Duly accomplished and signed Potential and Personality Trait Assessment Form (PPTAF)⁷
- f. List of Training and Scholarship attended and certified by the concerned HR office (for applicants from attached agencies and sectoral offices)
- g. Certificate of No Pending Administrative Case
- h. Proposed Re-Entry Action Plan (REAP)⁸

D. EVALUATION OF CANDIDATES FOR FOREIGN NON-STUDY PROGRAMS AND STUDY PROGRAMS

8.2.13 Any endorsement by DOTr to the Development Partners, if necessary, for all foreign non-study programs and study programs, whether local and foreign, shall be made by the DOTr-CO PDC.

8.2.14 However, in instances where there are applicants from the sectoral offices and attached agencies, the PDC/s concerned (or its equivalent) shall evaluate their respective applicants using the selection criteria provided in Section 8.2.16, and the Head of Office/Agency shall endorse its selected applicants to the DOTr-CO PDC for concurrence and official nomination to the
